Schools Plan Recreation Program for Adults

What would happen to our children if they were attending school at the time a nuclear explosion occurred?

It would depend basically upon which of our school districts the children attend, although most have adopted the same plan.

In Lafayette the children will follow the "walk-home" procedure if there is sufficient warning—the minimum is placed at 12 hours by the district.

IF THERE IS insufficient warning, or none, then the "duck and cover" procedure will be followed.

The same is true of the Walnut Creek and Mt. Diablo Unified School District elementary youngsters.

In Orinda, children will be kept at the school unless written permission is given by the parents, in which case the children will be allowed to walk home, but without school supervision.

In Moraga the children will be kept in school because the officials feel that the school buildings, because of their construction, are safer than any other buildings in the area.

ACALANES High School District youngsters will be permitted to walk home or to be evacuated by student and faculty automobiles, at the option of the parents.

Alamo and Danville follow the same procedure as the other school districts—walk home if there is time, duck and cover if there is not.

As one school administrator put it: "There isn't much else you can do, unless somebody comes up with something really spectacular."

Trustees Tackle Major Unification Problems

Trustees of elementary school districts lying within the boundaries of the Acalanes High School District met January 4 with trustees of the high school district to discuss plans for the possible formation of two unified school districts.

This is a result of an early meeting of the County Committee on School District Reorganization which tabled plans for the formation of a single unified school district in order to give elementary school districts time to formulate the present plans.

ELEMENTARY districts which met included Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Canyon and Walnut Creek.

Under their plan, or Plan F, two districts would be formed. One would include Orinda, Canyon and Moraga and the Miramonte and Campolindo high schools. The other would include Lafayette and Walnut Creek and Las Lomas, Del Valle and Acalanes high schools.

Trustees divided into two groups as represented by the above districts and discussed plans with representatives of the high school district.

No action was taken, but trustees agreed to work out solutions to problems concerning boundaries, bond leveling, number of school board members to be elected in each district, whether they would be elected at large or by the ward system, and equitable division of property.

When agreement has been reached on these matters the proposal will be turned over to the county committee for consideration.

No meeting date has been set, but it will probably be some time in March.

KQED Translator to Be Operating Feb. 5

KQED, Channel 9, will provide television viewers in Contra Costa and Solano Counties the unique program service of the Bay Area's distinguished community television station, starting Monday, February 5, said James Day, general manager of KQED, today.

The translator station atop Mt. Diablo would automatically rebroadcast all KQED programs on Channel 80, one of the special television channels which the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has designated for this purpose.

This ultra-high frequency (UHF) Channel 80 will transmit a clear television signal to the communities in this area which are now "shadowed" by the Oakland-Berkeley hills from Channel 9's transmitter atop Mt. San Bruno in northern San Mateo County.

THE COST of $15,000 to build the translator station is being shared jointly by the school districts and the television audience. William Kimball of Pleasant Hill and Dr. Charles Dodge of Martinez, with the assistance of Mrs. Sarah Lee Adams of Lafayette, have spearheaded an intensive drive to raise the necessary funds for this construction.

To date the KQED Citizens Committee, in various areas of the two East Bay counties, has succeeded in obtaining $8300 of the necessary amount.

"There is a dire need to raise the additional $7000 to get the translator station on the air by February 5," Day emphasizes. Contributions in any amount may be sent to KQED, 525 Fourth Street, San Francisco 7. The city of Pleasant Hill recently went on record endorsing KQED's translator fund, urging more public support.

IN FILING the original application to the FCC for a translator, Day said:

"This action is being taken in answer to hundreds of requests from residents in Walnut Creek, Martinez, Concord, Lafayette, Orinda and surrounding cities who are anxious to have available the alternative program service offered by a non-commercial television station.

"It will be of particular benefit to the school districts in this area wishing to participate in the KQED classroom television service, which is now being used in 90 school districts involving more than 150,000 elementary and intermediate grade students."

ON FEBRUARY 5, elementary school students in KQED's contracting school districts of Alamo, Antioch, Danville, Martinez, Mt. Diablo, Pinole-Hercules, Pittsburg, Sheldon and Vine Hill will receive a strong signal in the classroom for KQED's school courses.

In addition, the home viewer, through the purchase of proper UHF conversion equipment, will be able to tune in on all KQED programs.

By law, KQED cannot boost its present signal on Channel 9 because of the interference this would cause with other television signals. Therefore, the only alternative is to transmit programs on a UHF channel.

Only $66,000 Separates Us From Hospital

Instead of needing $150,000 in donations, leaders of the John Muir Hospital Fund Drive need only about $66,000 to qualify for $2½ millions in state and federal aid which will build their 150-bed hospital.

A larger long-term loan, totaling some $1,134,000, has been negotiated, and this reduces the amount of cash needed, according to Alfred Layton, fund drive chairman.

This puts the drive within two per cent of its goal, and the deadline is February 15, Layton said.

"We hope every member of the community who has not yet contributed to extend themselves by making a gift to John Muir Hospital to the extent they are able so the relatively small amount of remaining funds will be raised," said Layton, a Diablo resident.

The pledges can be paid any time before December, 1963, almost two years from now, but the pledge must be made by February 15.

The federal and state funds under the Hill-Burton Act will total $2,482,174. Some $174,965 has been raised in cash from all campaigning; $80,000 has been pledged from the 1959-60 fund campaign, and $80,700 has been received in pledges from the current campaign.

The non-profit hospital will be built on the south side of Ygnacio Valley Road, east of Walnut Creek.

Chinese Classical Water Color Classes Planned

Linda Chang will give her third course in Chinese classical water color painting, beginning Tuesday under the sponsorship of the Orinda Art Center at the request of local artists.

Miss Chang will teach Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., on January 16, 23 and 30, and February 6, 13 and 20, at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Born in China and educated in Shanghai under the tutelage of 37 artists, each specializing in a particular aspect of Oriental art, Linda Chang this time will emphasize flowers, landscapes, birds and bamboo, all in symbolic design used in the 16th century T'ung dynasty.

FOLLOWING her Master of Arts degree at the University of California at Berkeley, Miss Chang has had one-man shows in New York, Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Formosa.

In line with her dream to promote Chinese art in America, a group has been formed in San Francisco Chinatown to perpetuate the ancient art forms. Her murals decorate the Chinese restaurant "Johnny Kan's," being in black smoky style on gold leaf.

She maintains an art studio at 6207 College Avenue, Oakland, and lives here with her mother and younger brother. Her father and older brother are in Argentina, South America. She is an American citizen.

COST FOR the series of six lessons will be $10, payable in advance. A maximum of 18 students will comprise the class, chosen on a first-come basis.

Checks should be sent to Mrs. Boyd Eubank, 28 Lavinia Court, Orinda. Those desiring additional information may contact Mrs. Richard Funk, CL 4-4864, or Mrs. William Wilkinson, CL 4-3056.

McCunn, Students Clash on Texts

McCunn Withholds Views For/Against Fascism

How John Birch Topic Arose

Birch Society Discussed; Students Want '2 Sides'

By NORMAN COLBY

Drummond McCunn, superintendent of the Contra Costa Junior College District, Wednesday astounded newsmen and students by refusing to say he is opposed to the fascist Nazi Party or the principles espoused by Hitler and Mussolini.

The question was put after McCunn's speech clarifying his views on the John Birch Society and college textbooks, delivered during "college hour" in the cafeteria.

The question was No. 7 on a list of nine questions prepared in advance and mimeographed for the use of McCunn and newsmen.

THE QUESTION, read by Leonard Lanfranco, student body president, was as follows:

"You say that any organization that is anti-communist is worthy of commendation.

"The American Nazi Party is anti-communist, and so was Hitler. Do you then commend the Nazi Party, Hitler and Mussolini, also?"

McCunn paused for a moment, and then said, "I have no comment at this time. There is only one choice there. I will offer documentation of my position at a later time."

A HORDE of newsmen surrounded McCunn at the conclusion of the meeting, and the question was repeated. McCunn repeated that any reply from him would have to be accompanied by documentation.

The question was rephrased by a Sun reporter and several other reporters, to avoid any misunderstanding.

McCunn continued to refuse to say that there is anything wrong with the Nazi Party, Hitler or Mussolini.

Asked one reporter, "Don't you admit that World War II happened?" McCunn said he had no comment.

McCunn was also contacted by The Sun about 10 hours after the meeting and was informed that his reply was the same.

One student objected to the reporters' questions, saying that the Nazi Party, Hitler and Mussolini are "ancient history."

The remainder of the prepared questions brought out these general comments from McCunn.

Socialism is a "step" towards communism, but he did not say that his teachers are advocating socialism, which he said would be illegal.

THE QUESTION whether he agrees with those who named Dwight Eisenhower, Milton Eisenhower, John Foster Dulles and Earl Warren as members of the communist conspiracy is "off the subject."

Actually, "very few" of the district's textbooks are "slanted," but those that are should be considered for replacement, he said.

He has some 350 pages of documentary proof gathered since 1954 pertaining to the California textbooks.

"When you see an author is identified with 21 subversive organizations, we should take a look. He cannot sell America as did our founding fathers," he said.

MUCH OF the newspaper reports about his San Francisco statements were "out of context."

Those teachers who object to his San Francisco statements may be "slipping on the shoe of guilt."

The law provides for informing students about world government, but the U.S. Constitution prohibits any advocacy of world government, he said.

Any establishment of world government would be dominated by communist nations, McCunn said.

McCunn will be willing to give his views on federal aid to education at some future time, but not at present.

College Personnel Troubles Steered Into Executive Session; Crowd Irked

The "personality cleavages" and difference of political views which threaten to "wreck" the Contra Costa Junior College District will be discussed in a board of governor's non-public executive session, it was decided Monday night.

Board Chairman William Kretzmer needed all his powers of persuasion and a booming voice to control a tense crowd of more than 400 adults which crowded into the cafeteria, with leaders demanding an open debate on "personnel" matters.

One board member as discussion grew hot warned he was not going to be forced to make a decision at this time because of "mob action."

CENTER of the storm is District Superintendent Drummond McCunn whose statements that several district-used textbooks are slanted towards socialism have aroused teacher groups. McCunn's qualified approval of the John Birch Society also has two county labor unions protesting.

The executive session, it was decided, will deal with the following:

1. Written statements submitted to the district by four teachers groups protesting against McCunn's charges of socialism-slanted textbooks. It is said that one such statement asks for McCunn's resignation.

2. Two petitions submitted by attorney Robert Condon on behalf of the Central Labor Council and Building and Construction Trades Council asking the board members to disassociate themselves from McCunn's remarks favoring the ultra-conservative John Birch Association.

3. An allegation by district instructor Wayne Hayden that he was struck in a scuffle with an unnamed prominent employee of the district after a board of governor's meeting in the Hall of Records.

The only member of the audience who apparently was willing to postpone matters was instructor Hayden, who was assured that the matter will get full consideration in the non-public personnel session, and a public hearing after that, if necessary.

The lack of a public address system did nothing to improve the ill humor of the crowd, although a makeshift amplifier system was provided later on.

First person to test Chairman Kretzmer's determination to confine discussion to the agenda was Mrs. Wilt, who said she is 71 and grandmother of 11 children.

SHE SAID she wished to speak against the book, "The Shape of English," but Kretzmer reminded her that the book had already been withdrawn from suggested books for use next semester, and any discussion was therefore pointless.

After condemning the board members as "narrow-minded" Mrs. Wilt gave up her attempt to expand her subject to textbooks in general.

The matter of the teacher's complaints against him was introduced for discussion by McCunn himself, but the board members referred it to executive session.

Robert Condon, attorney for the labor organizations, complained he and others had been waiting for two hours in expectation of being heard.

"YOU CAN'T avoid a public hearing, because the people want to be heard," Condon insisted.

Condon was assured that not only would the matter be taken up in executive session, but it will also be scheduled on the next meeting agenda.

Just as anxious to have the matter publicly aired were the McCunn supporters, who formed a large segment of the audience.

As Kretzmer was about to adjourn the meeting, Robert Van Gelder of Orinda stood up and asked the board to hear statements from the crowd.

When Kretzmer demurred, Van Gelder called out impatiently, "Be quiet for a moment."

Kretzmer replied firmly, "I'm running this meeting and you're not. I was not elected by the

Just how the subject of the John Birch Society came up was explained in Junior College District Superintendent Drummond McCunn's prepared speech Wednesday morning during the Diablo Valley College "college hour."

McCunn's comments on this and other subjects are as follows:

"Allow me to set the record straight. On December 6, as a delegate to the annual convention of the California Association of School Administrators, of which I am a past president, I and six other educators were scheduled to take part in a panel discussion on the subject of 'Teaching About Communism in Our Public Schools.'

"THE PRESS, presumably because of the widespread interest in this subject, asked for and arranged an interview of the seven panelists.

"I was the only one who showed up. Maybe I should have stood in bed—but I don't think so.

"During the course of the interview I commended such organizations as the American Bar Association, U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion and others for their fight against the Communist conspiracy," McCunn continued.

"I was asked by a reporter at this point whether I would include the John Birch Society.

"I replied and repeatedly emphasized that on one point only—its stand against the Communist conspiracy—I included the John Birch Society.

"FURTHERMORE, I emphasized at the press conference and later during my panel presentation that I spoke as an individual, and not in any official capacity.

"As you all are now well aware, the press 'ran away' with the Birch Society comment.

"Although the press was given copies of my panel talk and attended the panel discussion, no newspaper or wire service used a single quotation from or made a single reference to my written speech.

"I made no claim then of being misquoted, and I make none now.

"IN FACT, if the newspaper needed another headline, I will repeat myself: I commend the John Birch Society on one point only—its stand against the Communist conspiracy.

"We are not playing patty-cake; the Communists are deadly serious, and America needs all the friends it can muster," he said.

"... some headlines and partial statements caused persons to believe that I was not in support of public education.

"My background disproves this thought, for I am a son of a minister, my mother and her brother were teachers, my three sisters served well in the public schools of California.

"I could continue to enumerate cousins, uncles and aunts who have served education faithfully for many generations. Because of my deep devotion to public education, I am intolerant of the evils which have developed within education.

"... A university professor who examined eleven of the leading textbooks in United States history recently stated: 'The textbooks lean toward collectivism or toward socialism, ridicule patriotism and ridicule even anti-communist efforts; these textbooks dominate and monopolize the scene.'

"AFTER examining 30 to 40 textbooks in United States history used in the high schools throughout the country another professor stated: 'The majority of these texts tend to brainwash students into an acceptance of the welfare state, Fabian socialism and 'liberal' collectivism.'

"This same author stated: 'After studying this situation for several years it is my belief that our American heritage of initiative, self-reliance and free enterprise will be lost unless we stop such brainwashing in our schools.'

"It is difficult to understand why any teacher employed in

Dr. Drummond McCunn has declared that his qualified approval of the John Birch Society and his efforts to replace certain "socialist slanted" textbooks in Contra Costa Junior College District are part of his fight "to prevent damage to the minds of the youth of this college."

The 58-year-old superintendent of the college district stood perspiring before more than 700 restless and murmuring students, while a battery of newsmen scribbled at a nearby table, flashbulbs popped and moving-picture cameras whirled.

Scene was during the "college hour" Wednesday morning in the cafeteria, where McCunn delivered a prepared speech and replied to nine written questions and others from the floor concerning his political beliefs.

THIS WAS the latest development in a train of events which began December 6 when McCunn attended a conference in San Francisco and told newsmen he approved of organizations fighting the communist conspiracy, including the right-wing John Birch Society.

McCunn's statements drew the ire of many liberals and members of county labor organizations. And his concurrent efforts

'Executive' Session Is Coming

A non-public executive session on "personnel" will be held by the Contra Costa Junior College District board of governors sometime before the next regular meeting, it was announced.

A date has not yet been set for the executive session. The next regular meeting of the board will be held January 22 at 8 p.m. at the district offices, 1005 Escobar Street, Martinez.

Discussion will involve two petitions submitted by labor unions in the county asking the board to "disassociate" itself from Superintendent Drummond McCunn's statements favoring the John Birch Society.

Textbook Maneuvering Is Denied

"It's all news to me," said College District Superintendent Drummond McCunn, Wednesday, when asked whether he wished to create the impression he forced an English textbook to be withdrawn from future district use, when the text allegedly was earlier withdrawn by the author.

McCunn was speaking at the Diablo Valley "college hour" in reply to questions from the audience.

An unidentified woman asked if the textbook, "The Shape of English," had actually been withdrawn by the author, instructor Richard Worthen before McCunn brought objection to it.

Her question whether McCunn had taken 90 copies of the book from the campus bookstore before the December 11 board of governors meeting for distribution to the audience was met by a flat denial by McCunn.

Background Of McCunn Is Outlined

Dr. Drummond McCunn's background and experience was described as he took the rostrum Wednesday at Diablo Valley College's "college hour."

It includes the following: Native of Los Angeles, bachelor of arts and master of science, doctor of education, UCLA.

Assistant superintendent of Pasadena City Schools, member of Los Angeles Board of Education for 11 years and president for one term, member of the Advisory Council of the American Association of School Administrators.

Member of the State Scholarship Commission, member and past president of the California Association of School Administrators, receiver of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce service award, past district officer of Kiwanis International, receiver of the Freedom Foundation national award.

Occupation Of U.S. Told In Leaflet

A leaflet indicating that the United States will be occupied by alien troops with the establishment of world government was handed to newsmen by Junior College District Superintendent Drummond McCunn, Wednesday at Diablo Valley College.

The leaflet indicates California and the western states would be occupied by Irish troops, the southwest by Mongolians, the south and southeast by Russia and the north and northeast states by Belgium.

McCunn remarked, "I could probably change my name to McCann and get along all right."

Duck Soup . . .

AFTER THE FOG (I could never live in London, could you, w/the darkness & drizzle of dismal fog?) a crescent moon like a silver scimitar on the rise over a riotous burst of bay area lights, the spectacular sight that is yours free from a box seat anyplace along Grizzly Peak . . .

Looking down on a spread-out scene like that, it's not hard to believe what one newscaster predicted: That in 10 yrs., there won't be a tree left in California what w/the population to surpass New York's . . . If you want to get rich, he advised, buy land. If it reaches THAT point, we'll all move back where we came from—or to the Bahamas.

WHO'LL PAY THE RENT. Who'll pay the rent? OGDEN'S will when they take over the entire bldg. where they're hq'd. now. Plans for their new store behind Safeway have been temporarily shelved so those of us concerned about somebody mowing down THOSE tree can relax, at least for awhile!

On the move out: Al Baer who'll join the commuters to Oakland for his new Shoe Mfg. biz there . . . Jim Pinkney will set up the shoe repair shop over in the Safeway honeycomb & Toy Villa's Leon Krog is still undecided just where he'll park his wagons & games.

Anywhere you look, space is at a premium. That's why it is heartening to learn that new Orinda Assoc. pres. Eric Neilsen anticipates plans for the community property during the next year.

The Ted Schillings are due back from a balmy time at Palm Springs & the Cecil Cuttings will have a little more elbow room & no parking problems when they take a 6-wks. South-Seaspree. The Roger Bond family have been studying Norwegian for a move to the same Scandinavia Land of the Midnight Sun.

District Board Given Highlights of Convention

State legislation, education for responsible citizenship and the new teacher tenure law were three points frequently stressed at the Boards of Education convention held recently in San Francisco, according to two trustees of the Orinda Union School District board.

Mrs. Ruth Gilwee and Mrs. Gretchen Howe, Orinda trustees who attended the convention, reported some of the highlights to the Orinda board Monday night at the trustees' meeting in the Pine Grove School.

Stressing the increased responsibility the new teacher tenure law places on school boards, Mrs. Gilwee said, "It has now become very difficult to ask a teacher to leave. We must exercise extreme care in hiring new teachers."

MRS. GILWEE added that a point brought out during one of the sessions revealed that unification had failed in areas when community identity was ignored.

Mrs. Howe expressed the thought that school boards in general should pay more attention to pending state legislation affecting education in order to take action, if necessary, before the act, not afterwards.

She added that Orinda should be proud that one of the district's teachers, Phyllis Wainright, participated on a panel pertaining to curriculum planning. Mrs. Howe told the board that Dr. Leonard Grinstaff, chairman of a panel session she attended, told his group that many boards were not spending time on curriculum.

"IF A BOARD is not spending 50 per cent of its time on curriculum, then it is not doing the job," Dr. Grinstaff said. He added that it is true that most top colleges are moving up one year in every five. "Unless elementary and high schools act accordingly, they won't keep up," he concluded.

J. Gordon Ainsworth, board chairman, told the trustees that he attended a session on educational television at the convention. He described the use of aircraft being used to relay television signals. He said 12 such planes flying at 22,000 feet could do the job throughout the country.

Ainsworth also described an electronic device being used in some classrooms to measure level of teaching, that is what percentage of a class, at any given time during a lesson, was grasping what percentage of the lesson content.

IN OTHER business the board reviewed the inspector's report on Del Rey multi-purpose room and the I. V. addition and were shown progress charts by William Anderson, district architect.

They authorized Kirkham, Chaon & Kirkham to purchase the drain for the new administration building and directed that notice of completion for the building be filed.

A letter from Neil Parsons, superintendent, Acalanes Union High School District expressing an interest in purchasing the Wagner ranch site for a future high school was read to the board.

No action was taken on the letter at the time. The board requested James Jentges, assistant superintendent of business, to prepare an up to date prognostication on school population growth. At present it is anticipated Orinda will have reached saturation by 1961.

AINSWORTH requested Vicki Kingston, chairman of the building committee, to make a new study of land available to the district and to contact Bernard Muth regarding the Dutra ranch site.

When current information on estimated growth and land available is obtained, the board will contact Parsons regarding the possibility of negotiating a sale of the Wagner ranch site.

The board adopted the evacuation policy and will send copies of same home to parents via report cards due in February. With the policy will be a form to be signed and returned to school if parents want their children to walk home, unsupervised, on a red alert.

Ainsworth suggested that short of a drastic emergency the district should try to get the children home, particularly if the emergency involved only one school in a "local" disaster.

The board agreed to permit St. Giles Episcopal Church to use certain rooms at I. V. Intermediate School for church services and a Sunday school and directed Jentges to have the district attorney prepare a bid notice in compliance with the opinion of his office.

Eagle Court Will Honor Gary Woodcock

An Eagle Court of Honor at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on Monday will honor Gary Woodcock of 18 St. Stephen's Drive. He is the brother of Kent, a Cub Scout and Don, Jr., who received his Eagle Award in 1960.

The young man who is president of the Episcopal Young Churchmen and has served two and a half years as Acolyte, is currently working on his God and Country Award.

His commendable Scout record from Cub Scout Bob Cat to Boy Scout Eagle includes being Den Chief of Cub Pack No. 32, assistant Senior Patrol Leader and Senior Patrol Leader of Troop No. 247. An officer and Brotherhood Member of the Order of The Arrow, a Scout service organization, Woodcock attended the Order of the Arrow conclave at the University of Indiana last summer.

He attended Camp Wallace Alexander for three years where he earned his merit badges and received a letter of commendation from the U.S. Forest Service for detecting and helping to extinguish a forest fire while on an 80-mile scout hike.

The eighth-grade Pine Grove student is a member of the school band and has earned three athletic letters for sports excellence. Scoutmasters Peter St. Hill, Stanley Hunn and Roger Bond will be on hand for the ceremony and the Eagle Award will be presented to Gary by his grandfather, Lloyd S. Woodcock of Walnut Creek.

Miss McCosker Is Part of Royal Court

Miss Vicki McCosker, 18, was selected as an attendant in the 1961 Big Game Queen contest at the University of California at Berkeley. Miss McCosker, as part of the royal court, participated in many of the traditional pre-game week activities.

Twenty-four college beauties took part in the contest. The coeds were nominated by various men's living groups. A distinguished panel which included Broadway producer Peter Laurence, cartoonist Marty Links, and singer Joanie Sommers judged the girls. The basis for judging was poise, personality, complexion, hair, face, and figure.

Vicki was sponsored by the Theta Delta Chi fraternity and is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Vicki's other honors have included being chosen Miss San Francisco of 1961 and queen of Northern California in the 1961 Miss Universe Pageant.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. McCosker of Orinda, California.

How would you and your family like to take a free tour of Europe?

You can do it, if you come to the free Sun Travel Night, February 1 at the Acalanes High School cafeteria at 8 p.m.

But we feel that we should warn you to come a little early, because over 350 people joined The Sun at the last travel night, and all seats were taken.

What is in store for you when you join The Sun that Thursday night?

Well, Sylvia Earle, noted world traveler, author, journalist and lecturer will be on hand to outline for you what you will see if you join The Sun Jubilee Holiday—28 days and nine countries—leaving June 14.

SHE WILL follow the itinerary of The Sun Jubilee trip, showing you the motor coaches you will travel in, the sights in the important towns, and the hotels where you will stay.

She will also bring along samples of items you may wish to purchase in Europe—which pieces are bargains, and which are art pieces.

Report Reveals Discipline No Problem Here

Discipline is no problem in Orinda schools, according to a report presented Monday night to the board of trustees by the Education Advisory Council.

Trustees requested the council to make a study of and evaluate classroom and schoolyard discipline, starting in January 1961. The council also reviewed the State Education Code and board policies.

Although some incidents involving discipline did occur in Orinda schools the report states: "The percentage of students involved was so minimal, according to the administration, that there was little cause for concern."

"IT WAS pointed out that there were relatively few problems of this kind in Orinda because: Students want to live up to expectations of their parents and peers. Teachers are given a good deal of authority. Parent cooperation is excellent."

On the basis of information gathered during the council discussion meetings the following conclusions were reached: "The school legally is responsible for children's behavior during the hours school is in session. The board of trustees policy relative to discipline is most acceptable."

Recommendations presented to the board by the council are as follows: "It should be recognized that the behavioral patterns of children are set at home. Children should be taught respect for authority at all times."

"THERE SHOULD be no relaxation of present standards of discipline. A adult supervision should be continuous in the classroom, the school grounds and at school sponsored student activities."

"Parents should be informed when children are not good citizens."

The district board policy has been stated thusly: "The classroom teacher has the responsibility of maintaining discipline in his classroom. Reasonable measures for the maintenance of discipline include conferences with parents, dismissal or suspension."

"When necessary, teachers may use reasonable physical restraint and reasonable physical punishment may be administered by the teacher under the supervision of the principal or by the principal."

Hats Off To...

Caroline Hecathorn, An Inspirational Leader

A MERIT BADGE, true-blue, please, for Caroline Hecathorn, model mother and perennial Girl Scout Troop Leader whose guidance and direction have inspired unusual good-will works by her young Scouts.

The pet project of Caroline's Troop #341 as well as Troops 297, 254, 22 and 107 is Kum Kok, a small Korean orphanage in the Kyonggi Do province of South Korea. Here, from sunset to sunrise (without electricity and housing 49 youngsters, aged 2-17) the sound of old 78 records ring forth from a wind-up victrola, just one of the many thoughtful gifts sent by the girls of the above Troops to their friends in the "loner" orphanage beyond Seoul.

A SCRAPBOOK tells the story of the across-the-world friendship exchange and the girls enjoy correspondence with the children as well as the orphan's "parents," Mr. and Mrs. Chin who thank the scouts for their "sincerity and love as a symbol of humanity" and reciprocate with hand-painted scrolls, a handmade screen and a small oriental vase.

Caroline proudly tells that the troops' dues plus cookie and calendar funds are used almost exclusively for the postage fund to send the parcels of clothing, small Christmas gifts and other treasures, like pencils, to the children via friends in a nearby army base.

THE BLONDE pretty Caroline, a native Berkeleyan, is the mother of Milanne, 16, Kris, 13 and Debbie, 10, is currently Room Mother Chairman at Pine Grove, an industrious member of Lombardy Branch, CHEB, who'll chairman this year's spring luncheon, an active Hilltop Garden Club member and a sponsor of the Orinda Art Center.

She and her husband Lloyd who is a sales manager for Arcata Redwood Company met while both were students at the University of Oregon and have lived for ten years in their redwood home at 215 La Espiral.

Unique System Is Aid To Small Businessman

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Exciting new discoveries and explorations of the Space Age are not confined to the field of science alone, as one soon realizes when talking to Irving Bud Lieber, public accountant with offices at 9-A Moraga Way.

Lieber has lifted the prosaic and to some dull world of accounting, to a challenging new vista with untold possibilities. "MACHINES that appear to think and work for themselves are not new, but when machines are 'taught' to keep the books for an entire city, with only one human involved in the accounting system, that is news."

A strong interest in automated accounting systems and procedures, which could give the small businessman timely and comprehensive reports, started Lieber thinking in terms of electronic data processing in 1958.

He began working with different systems, experimenting as to their adaptability and efficiency and with the assistance of Mrs. Louis B. Ambler of Orinda, devised the system currently offered to small business, governmental agencies and cities.

A CLIENT may review the system, then use all, or that part which seems best adapted to his needs, according to Lieber. Two fantastic machines do the bulk of the work, with the final result a general ledger that reveals every transaction in detail easily understood by the client, who need not be an accounting major to know the financial state of his business.

"Brains" of the system is a National Cash Register paper punch tape adding machine that throws an electronic signal to a tape recording machine.

A 14-key machine (across, that is) the machine does much more than add. In very general terms (it is a complicated get-to for the uninitiated) the machine adds, subtracts, remembers, voids, corrects, records, an infinite number of transactions according to code number, in short, does all that an accountant and skilled bookkeeper with an office full of assistants could do... and does it correctly the first time around.

IN ADDITION, it constantly throws electronic signals to its running mate, the tape recorder. From the resulting tape, IBM cards are made at the service bureau and eventually the complete general ledger, or part thereof desired, is in the client's hands, within 10 days to two weeks at the most.

Mrs. Ambler, who told The Sun she became interested in working with Lieber because of the vast possibilities (she enjoys working with problems and producing the information needed) attempted to explain the method of electronic data processing used.

First, needs of the client are determined and the account set up. There can be any number of breakdowns, depending on need. Everything is sorted out and given a code number. This code number is used consistently and there is no back tracking, according to Mrs. Ambler.

AFTER THE basic information is taken from the client and the account set up, figures are transferred only once, directly to the machine, reducing the margin of human error considerably.

"This cuts costs, both in time of handling the account or time that can occur tracing a mistake when the work is done entirely by the human, rather than the machine," she said.

Lead information is fed to the machine first. That is, the date, the public accountant's number, client's number, etc., this information is not recorded as a cash transaction, but it remains throughout the recording permitting quick and easy identification of account and circumstances.

Also included in the recording is the tape journal information.

is from, i.e., cash disbursements, this identification is repeated until a new journal number is fed to the machine. The master register accumulates the total which is not lost when changing from journal to another.

Mrs. Ambler explained that the machine is actually two machines in one. The master machine recording and retaining, while the other continues its work as information is fed to it.

The machine prints in duplicate and if a mistake is fed to it, then voided, the tape recorder conveniently chucks out the void figure as tape is made. Only the machine knows when someone has "goofed," as mistakes will not appear on the tape.

Lieber said that 50 to 60 percent more money is spent on keeping accounts in business than needs to be spent. Using the electronic data processing system, business has found that one person can now do the job of three people, according to Lieber.

ONE OF Lieber's favorite examples of the system is the City of Pinole, now completely automated in its accounting department. The result is truly unbelievable.

Lieber displayed one compact sheaf of papers, bound into one book.

This book is the complete record of one month's transactions for the City of Pinole. The general ledger including all transactions is clearly understood by anyone, city council members or interested resident.

Every transaction has identifying information, so that it may be traced to its point of origin if any question should arise. Working with Lieber and Mrs. Ambler are Mrs. Phyllis Gould, Mrs. John Teeling and Mrs. A. E. Mills.

AAUW Meeting Theme Will Be International

An international theme will highlight the next meeting of the Orinda branch of the American Association of University Women, Thursday, at the Pine Grove School. Dinner, featuring continental recipes prepared by branch members, will be served at 7 p.m.

Following the dinner, Dr. Leslie O. Merrill and Mrs. Robert Karplus will give talks on their overseas experiences.

Dr. Merrill will discuss "Fine Arts in South-East Asia" and show slides taken on his recent two-year sabbatical trip to that area. An Orinda resident, he is currently professor of fine arts at San Francisco State College and an interior designer for the John Brunner Company in San Francisco.

"Living in Vienna" will be the subject of Mrs. Robert Karplus who has recently returned from Europe. Her impressions reflect her trip with her husband, Dr. Robert Karplus, who studied in Vienna on a Fulbright scholarship.

On their travels they were accompanied by their six children, three of whom attended school in Vienna. Mrs. Karplus is now serving as elementary and secondary education chairman of the Orinda branch of A.A.U.W.

Consultant Is Fair Play Speaker

Morris Schneider, consultant for the Central Pacific Office of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, will speak at a meeting of the Fair Play Council, Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center, Lafayette.

Fate of Lindsey Property Hangs in Abeyance

Three hundred and sixty-five acres known informally as the Lindsey property continue to pose a problem for Orinda residents and county officials.

Contra Costa County planning commission last week closed a hearing on the property and took the matter under advisement until after a field trip is made to the parcel today.

G. & L. Investment Company has requested that the zoning be changed from R-A to single family residential R-40 and single family residential R-20.

Plans presented to the commission revealed lot sizes of 20,000 and 40,000 square feet on which the builders plan to build houses valued at $40,000 and $60,000.

FRANK DRAEGER, engineer representing the company, appeared before the Orinda School District Board of Trustees last fall, with the request that the board include the land within district boundaries. The Orinda board at that time refused the request. The site lies within the boundaries of Alhambra Union High School District, but access to that district from the site is not directly available.

The acreage touches the Orinda boundaries on the south and west and the Lafayette School District boundaries on the south and east.

When the matter of rezoning came before the county planning commission last week, representatives of three Orinda civic bodies protested the proposed rezoning basically on the grounds of increased traffic flow which would present a problem to Sleepy Hollow and Happy Valley residents due to inadequate access roads.

MEANWHILE the Orinda Fire District is concerned with the increased services needed if the parcel is included in its boundaries. No action on the matter has been taken as yet, according to district officials; however, they have explored the terrain for possible fire house sites and the matter is being considered by members of the fire commission.

Although the school district trustees originally turned down the request for inclusion of the property within their boundaries, the subject was a matter of discussion at the board meeting in Pine Grove School Monday night.

TRUSTEES were concerned that if the area becomes populated, the district might have to include the parcel in its boundaries upon a hardship plea from the residents.

James Jentges, assistant superintendent of business, was directed to explore the legal ramifications of the matter. District Superintendent James Sheaff told the board that he believed that if 10 percent of the voters (residing within the 365 acres in question) petitioned the county board of education

We Like It Here... You Just Can't Be Too Careful These Days...

By MARIE MONAHAN

AH, THE morning mail... & a little missile from the busy matrons across the way.

My Dears, wouldn't you know! It's an invitation to join their Very Select Group—the Weekly Poetry & Perusal Of Same Society.

TO SAY the least, it does sound tempting! Just what we need these days with the world in such a state!

AH, POETRY! To soothe the anguished soul... but Hmmm. Whose works do you suppose they'll study? Will membership dues be used to sponsor a starving & somewhat suspicious avant garde poet?

It is a time for caution, ladies. We must proceed carefully.

One doesn't leap headlong into a poetry-reading group these days or for that matter, into ANYTHING, without a little probing first.

YOU KNOW how it is.

Why, the way things are, you just don't go around joining any old thing these days as easy as THAT!

However innocent-sounding, who knows what lurks behind the hornrimmed hausfraus of ANY suburban group?

Hmmm. If these poetry gals should serve Coffee Espresso & sit around on pillows on the floor, well, it would almost set you to wondering now, wouldn't it?

THEN... some of the ladies ARE the terribly terribly literary kind.

You know. Their coffee tables are just stacked with stuff like The Saturday Review, the Atlantic Monthly, The Reporter, the New Republic & it does warrant suspicions... Avid readers of the NY Times, too!

AND HEAVENS TO BETSY but some of the mothers are the kind who drag armfuls of kids & books home from the library... the books being things like Little Black Sambo & Tsk, Tsk, that Tarzan... & that touchy one about the black & white bunnies.

Yes, indeed! It requires a thorough investigation before you get yourself involved with a bunch like THAT!

Nowadays, you can't trust anybody!

IF ANYONE says BOO, well right away we must look for motives... There's a place for everybody & everybody in his place, you know! Like to the left & right & things like that.

WHAT with all the talk about the United Nations & the HUAC & the Chamber of Commerce & Earl Warren, even IKE & the UNICEF, well, who knows WHICH way to turn? It's hard to tell the Good Guys from the Bad Guys. Absolutely confusing!

GOLLY! You know what? Suppose the ladies study Longfellow & Homer. How will I know those two aren't just front-men for the fellow OMAR who might infiltrate the readings? I'm about to take ANY chances...

YOU KNOW what Omar said & think how THAT could be interpreted!

Hats Off To...

Verne Odegard, 1962 Chamber President

Manager of the Lafayette office of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Odegard has been with PG&E for 25 years. He is a member of the Diablo Toastmasters, 598, a director of the Lafayette Rotary Club and a member of Acorn Lodge 494 AF&AM of Oakland.

Quiet and unassuming, Odegard is known for his hard work "behind the scenes" in many civic endeavors. Combining tact with ability, Odegard has led diverse committees to a constructive conclusion on several occasions.

The Cheapest Way... And the Best, too...

Two-thirds is pretty good, but it's not good enough.

Have you had the unfortunate experience of having to drive some member of your family into an East Bay hospital recently?

If so, you might look back and see what it cost you.

All of this relates to the proposed John Muir Hospital and the still-existing need for $66,000.

In the present campaign, workers have managed to round up $150,000—one-half of the total needed to put the project on the road.

BUT THERE is a February 14 deadline for the remaining $66,000, and if it isn't forthcoming, the whole project is likely to go down the drain.

As you are aware, the Hill-Burton grant will provide $2½ million for the $4 million project. $1,134,000 has already been committed by lending agencies, leaving only $66,000 to be raised locally for a $4 million project.

Now, stop and think about this for a minute. It would be a real shame to lose a $4 million hospital because of a relatively few dollars. What can you do about this?

Simple—you can make a contribution.

REMEMBER THAT trip to the East Bay hospital? Figure out what a trip would cost you—gasoline, tires, parking—even time. Multiply this by the number of visits that a one or two week illness would require if it were to happen in your family, and simply give the money to John Muir.

It is a lot easier to travel to a local hospital than it is to traverse the tunnel.

Furthermore, it is not the amount of the contribution that is of primary importance. Small gifts, if there are enough of them, will add up to the required sum.

THE NEED IS obviously here. Kaiser cannot come anywhere near handling the local population, nor can the other "local" hospitals.

This method of financing John Muir hospital is much cheaper to us, who will pay the bill one way or another, than the establishment of a hospital district, for example.

Furthermore, our population is rapidly increasing and what is now a serious need will become an emergency situation if something is not done soon.

And now is the time to do it—inexpensively.

We're Still Waiting...

It looks as if we have a problem, and it just isn't going to go away.

And that is, what do we do if The Bomb falls?

Frankly, we have held off for months the writing of this editorial because we were waiting for an answer.

We're still waiting.

And we're not the only ones. A certain amount of confusion seems to exist on the national and state levels, so what can you expect the regional and local civil defense people to do?

CERTAINLY they are not expected to operate at the policy level—whether shelters are really effective, or whether or not evacuation is best.

We have talked about evacuation, and the county civil defense office was most helpful, by providing a map showing evacuation routes.

But still, the local people indicate that shelters are the best answer—probably.

But then, when you look at shelters, you find that the federal government suggests construction of a shelter which does not meet local building requirements.

Again, you can't blame them for that because they can't survey every county in the country for special local problems.

OUR SCHOOL districts are confused. Some of them prefer to evacuate the youngsters, others to walk them home, others to hide them under desks.

Nobody is sure.

But, obviously, it is time the situation is clarified. We would like to see the local civil defense people put some pressure on the regional and state people—even federal, if possible, to see if we can't come up with some answers.

MEANWHILE, of course, there are some things we as individuals can do.

We can be sure that our automobile is always at least half full of gas, and that we have adequate food and clothing in an emergency package. We can consider the possibility of establishing a family plan to adopt in case of emergency.

These precautions are only common sense, and could also prove valuable in case of a natural disaster.

Not Your Home, Though...

They are never pleasant stories for a newspaperman to write, but they have to be written...

Those are the stories that concern the death of local families when their homes burn down... where some members, if not all, are burned to death.

It happened twice last week; once to an Orinda family, and once to a Lafayette family vacationing in Montana.

And six people died, needlessly. IT IS DIFFICULT to determine why these fires occurred, but certainly they could have been prevented.

Everyone is warned about Christmas trees and candles before the holiday season, and about dry grass fires in the summer, but fires are not a seasonal enemy.

As these two families have discovered.

But for those of us who have not lost our families, or part of them, there is time for reflection and action.

We all know what to do—don't trail extension cords all over the house; don't put pennies in the fuse box; don't store old papers and rags in the garage.

AND YOUR own fire marshal will be only too glad to check your home for you and offer advice.

How does your home stack up?

Try This on Your Kids...

By DICK OSBORN

They do things bigger and better down Texas way—at least that's what we are told.

It would seem, at least, that they do know how to raise juvenile delinquents.

Now, before the wrath of all the local displaced Texans falls upon me, let me hasten to point out that the following 12 rules for raising delinquent children were issued recently by the Houston, Texas, Police Department.

AND THEY are so darned logical that we couldn't resist passing them along to you, in case your youngster is getting along too well and you want to change his ways.

Here they are, and good luck!

1. Begin with infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up to believe the world owes him a living.

2. When he picks up bad words, laugh at him. This will make him think he's cute. It will also encourage him to pick up "cuter" phrases that will blow off the top of your head later.

3. NEVER give him any spiritual training. Wait until he is 21 and then let him decide for himself.

4. Avoid the use of the word "wrong." It may develop a guilt complex. This will condition him to believe later, when he is arrested for stealing a car, that society is against him and he is being persecuted.

5. Pick up everything he leaves lying around—books, shoes and clothing. Do everything for him, so that he will become experienced in throwing all responsibility on others.

6. LET HIM read any printed matter he can get his hands on. Be sure the silverware and drinking glasses are carefully sterilized, but let your child's mind feast on garbage.

7. Quarrel frequently in the presence of your children. It will keep them from being too shocked when the home breaks up.

8. Give the child all the spending money he wants. Never let him earn his own. Why should he have things as tough as you had them?

9. Satisfy his every craving for food, drink and comfort. See that every sensual desire is gratified. Denial may lead to harmful frustration.

10. TAKE HIS part against neighbors, teachers and policemen. They are all prejudiced against your child.

11. When he gets into real trouble, apologize for yourself by saying "I never could do anything with him."

12. Prepare for a lifetime of grief. You'll probably have it.

AHH-H-H-H-CHOO!

CAN YOU SYMPATHIZE with this poor suffering individual? Well, if he'd taken the proper precautions—like getting his flu shots in the fall, when he should have—maybe he wouldn't be in this predicament. How is your family doing? Sun photo by Bob Rush.

Letters to The Editor

McCunn Pros, Cons

A PATRIOT

Dear Editor:

Concerning public interest in Dr. McCunn's personal political beliefs and opinions on public education, text books etc.

We are grateful that a man of Dr. McCunn's stature and impeccable character is the superintendent of our junior college district. He has manifested consistently and from every angle an enthusiastic willingness to "stand up and be counted" and the courage to maintain strong convictions regardless of political pressures or whether his views will contribute to his "popularity."

These are rare qualities in this era of wish-washiness in which we are living... and from what we read in some newspapers and periodicals, being a "patriot," (wishing to preserve American freedom through an occasional reviewing of great historical events, of unswerving, firmly rooted national policy, all of which are part of our American heritage, being FOR America defended against all enemies from without and from within) carries with it a stigma which guarantees unpopularity in many select intellectual circles, and which insures the use of smear tactics by those best equipped to use them, thus giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

With the recent rash of Communist party-directed anti-anti-Communist activities, it is interesting to recall that our government, educational and church leaders for the most part did not "pussyfoot" and "whitewash" in their platform, classroom, and pulpit attitudes and opinions about Adolf Hitler and the ideology which he represented.

Yet those of us who see a more immediate and grave danger here in our own country from an even stronger and more clever enemy and wish to do something about it are branded from platform, classroom and pulpit as super patriots. Is there such a thing as too much patriotism?

Perhaps Dr. McCunn's courage and strength of convictions and personal integrity will be contagious, and other educators will vociferously agree to follow this statement from the California Education Code which Dr. McCunn quoted at the district board meeting December 11.

"Each teacher shall endeavor to impress upon the minds of the pupils the principles of morality, truth, justice, and patriotism; to teach them to avoid idleness, profanity, and falsehood; to instruct them in the principles of a free government and to train them up to a true comprehension of the rights, duties, and dignity of American citizenship."

MRS. MARK VALORY

JOHN BIRCH

Dear Editor:

There is a consistency in the views of those who support the extreme right-wing ideology of the John Birch Society. It is easily noted that they seem to appear in force where a vacuum exists.

This vacuum is usually created by an "apathy" on the part of moderate or "middle-of-the-road" individuals who ignore or feel an answer to such a group is hardly worth the effort.

I would surely question an administrator of an institution of higher education as to his right to "educate" our local youth by commending an organization which stands for the "branding" of such outstanding American leaders as former President Eisenhower and Chief Justice Warren.

THOSE WHO seek "easy answers" for dominant contemporary problems are often attracted to extremist positions of the extreme right or extreme left. Responsible government in these critical times requires reasoned, thoughtful deliberation and a courageous resolve to meet and grapple with extremely complex domestic and international commitments.

Responsible criticism is necessary to representative government, and such criticism is of great importance to our local press. From the type of responses which I have read lately in The Sun, they are of the type I imagine many editors would toss into the nearest "circular file."

Those individuals whose letters were published should be impressed by the tolerant attitude of The Sun editorial staff. This attitude has been consistent in its attempt to bring all points of view before our local readers.

THE EDITOR of The Sun has been commended locally and state-wide for his community spirit and great interest in the welfare of his community. He has a responsibility to bring into focus those items of local news which are of importance to his readers.

There are far too many newspapers in our country who seldom concern themselves with what they must consider mere community problems, as they evidently are convinced that there is greater acceptance in items of sensationalism and mayhem.

The citizens of this county and of this state are the employers of our local school systems, and have the right to question the public statement of a school administrator when it comes into conflict with the public opinion of the majority.

Let us hear more views from those who are concerned with the rise of extremists of which former President Eisenhower stated, "I don't think the United States needs super-patriots," including those who "make radical statements (and) attack people of good repute who are proved patriots."

RICHARD LELAND

McCUNN

Dear Editor,

This is a letter in response to your editorial invitation to "give you the works," but this is not my intent.

One of your recent correspondents is concerned about the "lethal damage" of your editorials.

Many of us are far more concerned about the lethal damage which is being done by individuals of the type of Dr. McCunn in high places, and worse, the lethal damage done by those fanatics whom he professes to admire.

The issue is NOT conservatism. Let us face it, the issue is totalitarianism. This should be repeated a thousand times. The fanatics of the right, if they had their way, would give us a dictatorship as brutal, intolerant and rigid as any that ever existed in Germany or Japan, or in Russia.

It would be a dictatorship with a system of thought control that would put the "thought police" of pre-war Japan to shame.

The slightest deviation from their narrow brand of orthodoxy would be branded as "Communism." We would have a society where most of the institution of a modern democratic state would be branded as "communist."

Those who advocate this kind of an America are absolutely without faith in the virtues of the traditional American system of liberty under law, and its ability to meet all challenges.

They give the Communists credit for being such supermen that they will take us over by 1973. This type of exaggerated fear can only be termed pathological.

MICHAEL WALES

McCUNN

Dear Editor:

I was not only surprised, but appalled, to read several letters in last week's issue of The Sun denouncing your editorial regarding the Birch Society remarks of Drummond McCunn, superintendent of our junior college district.

It had seemed to me that most of us were aware that it is one of the facts of life—whether the situation is desirable or not—that our public actions are keyed to, and often dictated by, our roles in the community, and, that any public figure should not only be aware of that fact, but abide by it in the interest of the public good.

MAY I ASK what the reaction would have been had the head of a large hospital announced that he supported an extremist group wishing to confine all medical practice to extremist methods further announced that he had doubts about the ethics of some members of his staff, sat back, smiled benignly, and stated that he did not have any direct evidence of such a fact, and later let it be understood that he had allowed the supposed condition to exist for some time without either investigating it or taking any steps to correct it?

Obviously, there are those who will support any such statements as long as the speaker includes the statement that his remarks and attitude are dictated by "true, red-blooded Americanism."

DR. McCUNN most certainly has a right to his private opinions, but it also most certainly behooves him, as the head of a large educational institution, to disassociate himself, both in public speech and educational action, from any extremist views.

Since he, against what he must know to be the strictest professional ethics, did make public statements praising an extremist group and making unsubstantiated aspersions against the faculty working under him, it does make one wonder whether he does not also carry these views into practice in his position as an educational administrator. Extremism has no place in good education.

I applaud your editorial, reminding your detractors that a firm and open stand or the asking of questions that need to be asked by a newspaper in its editorial columns is among the noblest and oldest of American traditions, and am pleased that we have a local paper willing to carry on that tradition.

Snoopy Blackmails the Editor into Confessing

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

"Please, Mr. Reporter, keep that story of my husband's arrest out of the paper."

In essence, this is a request we hear every now and then. I believe you've heard our answer before. A newspaper does not make the news; it reports the news. And you certainly do not want to put a newspaper editor in position of deciding what you should and should not read. The Sun's policy is to print the news.

"Hey, boss, cut out all that baloney," Snoopy, the office cat, continued, "You sound like a journalism text book."

Listen, Snoopy, you know you can't stay here when I write my column. Now scram.

Boss man, I know a secret, so you had better not get rough with me. And after reading all that high sounding stuff, I won't leave until I make you a 100 per cent, honest man. You know, speeding ticket and stuff."

The BIG revelation

Snoopy, you can't blackmail me, but I know what you're driving at. You may not believe it but I was saving that for a regular news story. Okay, I'll do it now just to get rid of you.

Eleanor Silverman, associate publisher of The Sun, picked up a ticket for speeding. Leaving Orinda, she was heading for the tunnel doing 55 miles per hour in a 45 mile zone.

And, Snoopy, you can rest assured if I am arrested for something the story will appear in this paper. Remember when one of our news editors was picked up as a litterbug. We printed that story. Now scram.

Black or white?

While in a confessing mood, let me admit I'm not 100 per cent certain of The Sun's policy of opposing the construction of new service stations where they obviously are not needed. The Sun has been commended and condemned for this editorial position.

You are aware of the problem. Oil companies continue to pay the highest prices for choice property to build more service stations—even though the community has too many stations already. Many of the station operators cannot stay in business, so the stations change hands. Meanwhile, more stations are built or expanded.

In answer to this, someone recently sent to me clipping from the Industrial News Review. Here it is:

"A short time ago the city council of a Michigan town of 31,000 population turned down a request of an oil company to construct two service stations. The reason given was that the city already had sufficient stations to meet the need."

How far will it go?

"Here is a unique precedent which, if applied down the line, could produce some remarkable results. Entirely aside from the dubious legality of the council's decision, if officials are to decide how many service stations a community should have, they must also be entitled to decide on the number of retail stores, insurance agencies, newspapers, doctors and so on ad infinitum."

"The point is simply this: Should bureaucrats determine the extent of the goods and services available or should business people and their customers? Putting it another way, who's boss—public servants or the public?"

I agree with this. We do not want government control. We have too much of it already. Then, what is the answer?

What can we expect?

Certainly, good business and good public relations should guide our oil companies. Is it too much to expect volunteer restraint by the oil companies themselves? (Or for other businesses for that matter.) If a town has 15 service stations already, should an oil company build another station—with one or two other stations at the very same intersection? It doesn't seem to make sense.

I would oppose governmental regulation. Let us hope the oil companies use good common sense on this important question.

Well, what do you think?

Letters to The Editor

McCUNN

Dear Editor,

Your correspondents who have written about the controversy over Dr. McCunn seem to assume the issue is merely one of "liberals" versus "conservatives." This is not the point at all.

One may well question the wisdom of any public official, especially a school administrator, who publicly endorses an extremist political organization of the left or right. While his own beliefs are his private concern and irrelevant to the controversy, his public actions and statements are not.

With the assumptions that the quotations were correct, we also have in this instance a public official making charges regarding teaching, school texts, and school curricula. None of the charges would be or could be back up with facts, a behavior reminiscent of the days of McCarthy.

One of the charges, that "Swing the Shining Sickle" is a communist song, is patently ridiculous. The substance of another charge was that world government is being taught in some schools, with the implication that this is evil.

While there is justifiable concern about the content of such a subject being taught, surely the general subject of world government and world law and the need thereof is thoroughly appropriate in these days when unbridled nationalism can lead to the extermination of humanity.

Judging from the news accounts, we, the residents of the junior college district, may well express concern about the competence and responsibility of our administrator.

CHARLES D. WAGNER

Monahan Column on Another Page

Due to the number of letters regarding Dr. McCunn and the controversy in the Contra Costa Junior College District, Marie Monahan's "We Like It Here" column will appear on another page of The Sun this week.

The editors felt that all the letters regarding Dr. McCunn should appear together, and for this reason we moved Mrs. Monahan's column this week.

Her column will appear in its regular place next week.

Harmons Celebrate Ruby Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harmon of Walnut Creek celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary recently at a gala reception in the Oak Park Nut Bowl, with more than 100 close friends and relatives present.

Their daughters, Mrs. Melvin Jory of Walnut Creek and Mrs. Marshall Myers of Victorville, and Mrs. Harmon's sister, Miss Helen Washburn of San Francisco, acted as hostesses.

Before the reception the couple were honored at a dinner party by their hostesses with 20 members of the family present. Their ages ranged from 14 months to 92 years.

Decorations for their "ruby" wedding anniversary were of red and white—the red in carnation and rose bouquets intermingled with the white of masses of chrysanthemum and dainty bouquets of lilies of the valley. These were used to form floral pieces for the reception room.

The same theme was carried out in the table setting. A wedding cake formed the centerpiece of the serving table. Tea and coffee were offered from the silver service at one end while fruit punch was served at the other.

Mrs. Harmon chose a lace afternoon dress in soft French blue for her anniversary party. Her corsage was fashioned of garnet roses and lilies of the valley.

The couple's two sons-in-law were present, as were all six grandchildren.

Guests attending the party came from this county, the Bay area in general and from Santa Cruz and the Peninsula. He is a member of Alamo Lodge 122, F&AM, and is affiliated with the Sun newspapers.

Rev. Ronald Ossmann read the marriage service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with lace inserts and lace paneling. It was embroidered with seed pearls and had a chapel train. She wore a crown of seed pearls and soft veil.

After their honeymoon on the Monterey peninsula, the newlyweds will make their home in St. Louis, Missouri.

The bride has been a student at the University of California and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

The bridegroom, whose father is past city physician of the city of Oakland, is a graduate of Oakland High School and Stanford University. He will return to his studies this month at Washington Dental School in St. Louis later this month.

Squaw Valley Couple Is Married

Hillcrest Congregational Church in Pleasant Hill was the scene of the recent wedding of Donald Walter Weidlein, formerly of Lafayette, to Heidi Rosemarie Bachthaler, daughter of Mrs. Adolf Bachthaler of Davos, Switzerland. Rev. Eugene Sill officiated at the ceremony.

After their wedding reception at the Alamo Women's Club the couple left for a two months' tour of Europe and a visit to the bride's mother in Switzerland.

The couple met at Squaw Valley during the ski season last year. The bride had been living in the ski resort with her "American parents," Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pelletier, in the ski resort, and was given in marriage by Joseph Pelletier.

In their wedding party were friends and ski companions from widespread areas. Maid of honor was Miss Eva Schreiber of Oakland, and attendants the Misses Kathy Kay of Squaw Valley and Sally Weidlein of Carmel. All wore gold satin sheaths with matching accessories. Their flowers were gold carnations surrounded with white stephanotis.

Robert Keller, Jr., of Lafayette was best man and Robert Toth of Sacramento, Jack Hohmann of Walnut Creek and Donald Davis of Menlo Park acted as ushers.

The bride wore a regal gown of taffeta and chantilly lace designed by Alfred Angelo. Cinched by a draped taffeta cummerbund, the delicately-patterned lace bodice was styled with long sleeves and a sabrina neckline. Her skirt ended in a chapel train. Her bouquet cascaded with butterfly orchids and stephanotis and her veil was caught up by a crown of seed pearls.

Mrs. Joseph Pelletier, who stood in for the bride's mother, wore a pale aquamarine silk gown with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a jacket of Dior blue and pale green brocade with a corsage of green orchids.

DVC Eyes .500 Mark

Diablo Valley College's cagers were dealt with another tough conference loss last Friday night when they were beaten by Cabrillo College, 46-44, at Santa Cruz.

The Vikings have lost two league games now by a total of three points. Foothill College nipped the Viks, 48-47, in their league opener.

The Vikings host Monterey Peninsula College this evening and Hartnell College Saturday night in the Viking gym.

TIPOFF time for each encounter is 8 p.m. as the Vikings aim for the .500 mark on their home court.

The game was close all the way as the lead changed hands several times. Diablo went to the dressing room at halftime with a 20-19 lead, but it didn't last long.

With Cabrillo dominating the backboards, the Vikings fell behind at the outset of the final half.

The Vikings had control of the ball twice in the last minute, but failed to push through the basket that would have tied the game.

Mahmood Adle and John Matasevich were the high scorers for the Seahawks and for the game.

They had 17 and 16 points respectively.

TOM NICHOLS led the Viking cagers with 15 points while Sam Coston contributed eight.

Gerry Sheehan came down with six of the Vikings' 22 rebounds while Cabrillo hauled 31 of the backboards.

DVC hit only 19 of 65 shots from the floor for 29 per cent while Cabrillo made 18 of 55 for 32 per cent.

Free throws told part of the story as Cabrillo made 10 of 14 for 71 per cent while the Vikings only made six of 12 for a poor 50 per cent.

College Park Wins 4th in JV Play

The College Park junior varsity captured its fourth win of the season last Friday against Castro Valley. The score was 35-24.

Paul Fitzgerald led the Falcon attack with 12 points.

College Park dropped a 28-18 decision to the Pleasant Hill frosh team on the same day.

Bob Dutton was high point man, with 6 points.

The Falcons' frosh are now 2-3 on the season.

Gaels Lose to Stingy San Jose In WCAC, 51-37

San Jose State, the nation's best defensive team, showed St. Mary's College why they are so ranked, dumping the Gaels, 51-37, Monday night in the San Jose Civic Auditorium.

For the Spartans, it was their second win in two league West Coast Athletic Conference games. They defeated USF in their openers, allowing just 35 points.

The Gaels are now 1-1, having defeated UOP in their opener. St. Mary's does not play again until February 1 because of exams.

Steve Gray paced the Gaels both games with 20 points. Tom Sheridan was next with seven points.

San Jose had three starters in double figures.

The Gaels could only score 12 field goals against the defensive-minded Spartans. Gray had six of these.

The Gaels are 6-6 over all, while San Jose is 10-4.

Pleasant Hill JVs Win Fifth in Row

Pleasant Hill JV scored its fifth straight victory in an undefeated season last Wednesday by crushing Liberty, 45-23.

Mike Hayes spearheaded the Ram attack with 10 points.

Pleasant Hill Frosh defeated College Park, 28-18, last Friday. Jim Belding led the Rams with 8 points.

The Rams now have two wins and two losses in league play.

Rice Hits 26 As San Ramon Beats Del Valle, 53-44

Paced by forward Don Rice, San Ramon picked up its first FAL win of the season, 53-44, Tuesday afternoon in Danville. San Ramon is now 1-2. Del Valle lost its third straight game.

Rice, playing his finest game of the season, poured in 26 points and sparked the third quarter rally that gave the Wolves their margin of victory.

Rice hit 12 of 12 attempts from the free-throw line to go with seven field goals.

He scored eight points in the third period as San Ramon outpointed the visiting Trojans, 17-7. San Ramon held a narrow, 25-24, lead at halftime.

The game was won at the free-throw line as San Ramon connected 21 times to 12 for Del Valle.

Both teams scored 16 field goals.

Guard Bob Metez hit on seven of eight charity tosses and scored a total of 15 points. Both Rice and Metez had been sidelined because of illness just before the holidays, but have carried the scoring load since their return.

Center Jim Howell had four baskets for eight points with three of his fielders coming in the third period rally.

Bill O'Toole gave a fine individual performance for the Trojans as he scored eight baskets and six of eight free throws for 22 points.

Mrs. Mitchell Wins Orinda Club Tourney

Mrs. L. N. Mitchell took top honors in Class A of "Throw out Three Holes" Ladies Day Tournament at the Orinda Country Club last week.

Mrs. Mitchell shot a 69-17-52.

Mrs. J. W. Small finished second with a 64-11-53. Mrs. J. P. Thomas was third with a 69-14-55.

In Class B, Mrs. J. H. Hennings won easily with a 75-24-51.

In second place was Mrs. J. H. Sweet who shot a 79-22-57. Mrs. R. D. Graffis was third with an 82-23-59.

Mrs. N. E. Rotermund took first place in Class C with an 83-29-54. She was followed by Mrs. D. E. Norman who shot an 84-26-55.

Mrs. G. W. Russell (86-27-59) and Mrs. J. N. Walker (91-32-59) tied for the third position.

WCYAA to Meet Tuesday Night

The Walnut Creek Youth Athletic Association will hold its first meeting of 1962 Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the recreation center.

The meeting will deal primarily with the upcoming junior baseball season.

A movie, "Batter Up" will be shown.

The instructional film features American and National League players.

All junior baseball managers are urged to attend. The meeting is open to the public.

CV Edges Rams, Falcons Bombed By Pittsburg

Pleasant Hill and College Park both opened their Contra Costa Division season on the wrong foot Tuesday afternoon.

The Rams were nipped by Clayton Valley, 33-32, while the Parkers succumbed to a torrid fourth quarter blitz by Pittsburg, 70-45.

Pleasant Hill held a first quarter lead of 9-6 over the Eagles, then upped the advantage to 17-13 at the half.

However, the Eagles put together one good scoring thrust in the third period and that was enough.

The Eagles scored 12 points in the eight minutes, the only quarter in which either team hit in doubles figures, and that was the game.

Pleasant Hill picked up seven points in the quarter to trail, 25-24.

THE TWO teams battled on even terms in the final session, but the Eagles held on for the win.

Al Oxley of Pleasant Hill was high for the game with 13 points. He had five field goals and three free throws.

Dennis Barry had eight points and Ken Friedenback had seven.

For Clayton Valley, guard Ken Ewing had five baskets for 10 points. He was the only Eagle in double figures.

Neither team could find the range from the floor. The Rams hit on 29 percent of their shots while Clayton Valley did even worse—22 percent.

A first quarter cold spell put College Park in an early hole and when they did get close, Pittsburg was equal to the task.

After scoring just five points in the first quarter, the Falcons found themselves on the short end of a 32-18 count at halftime.

However, College Park came back with one of their finest quarters of the season to outscore the defending CCD champs, 20-13, in the third period.

They now trailed, 45-38.

AFTER adding another basket and trimming the difference to five points, things went badly for the Parkers.

Pittsburg rammed through five quick points to make the score 52-42 with five minutes to go — and when College Park threw up an all-court press, Pitt riddled the defense to win going away.

Mickey Sytkowski topped College Park with 14 points on five field goals and four charity tosses.

Bob Ament finished with 11 points and Art Miller had nine.

Four of the starting five for Pittsburg were in double figures.

Center Mike Daye topped the list with 19 points. Guard Frank Bruno had 18 while Fred Davis had 12 and Larry Fields had 11.

Pittsburg hit on 22 of 28 free throws. Fields scored nine of these in 12 attempts.

Friday Games

Las Lomas Win Streak Reaches 14; Dons Lose

Las Lomas rolled to its 14th straight Foothill League victory and second of the season by defeating spunky Del Valle, 47-31, at the losers' gym last Friday night.

In other league games, Piedmont kept pace with the defending champions by knocking off Acalanes, 45-39, in Lafayette, and Alhambra handed San Ramon its second straight league defeat, 57-52, in Martinez.

In a non-league encounter, Miramonte rolled to its fifth straight win with Pleasant Hill the victim, 41-31.

LAS LOMAS 47 DEL VALLE 31

Center Bob Nichols and guard Greg Bertagnoli led the Knights to their second straight league win by collecting as many points as the whole Del Valle team.

Nichols topped both teams with 17 points on seven field goals and three free throws. Bertagnoli picked up five baskets and four charity tosses for 14 points. Gordon Rakow chipped in with four baskets.

Bob Kovats paced the Trojans with 12 points. He had four field goals and four free throws.

The loss was Del Valle's fifth in a row and sixth in seven games.

Las Lomas is now 5-3 on the season. The Knights opened their season with a 60-48 win over Alhambra while Del Valle was losing to Miramonte, 32-24.

The Trojans made Las Lomas work hard in their game, however.

The Trojans bounced out in front at the end of a see-saw first quarter, 11-10.

Hopes for a major upset were crushed quickly, however, as the Knights doubled the Del Valle scoring total in the second quarter (14-7) for a 24-18 halftime lead.

The defending champs put the contest on ice in the third quarter by scoring 15 more points while Del Valle again had seven. Nichols paced the Knights' surge in the third quarter by collecting nine of the winners' 15 points.

PIEDMONT 45

ACALANES 39

The visiting Highlanders picked up their second narrow win in two FAL outings by outscoring the Dons, 14-5, in the third quarter, then holding off a late Acalanes rally.

The game was Acalanes' first in league play. They had won three of four in non-league play.

Piedmont, 3-3 in practice games, managed to slip by San Ramon, 47-44, in its opener.

Acalanes held a slim, 9-7, lead at the end of the first quarter, but the Clan came back to capture a 19-16 halftime advantage.

New Church paced the Highlanders with 13 points on five baskets and three free throws.

Bill Hays was high for the Dons with 11 points. He had four field goals and three charity tosses.

Two of the league's top guards who were supposed to engage in a personal scoring battle had rather poor nights. Rick Prestwood had three field goals for Piedmont while John Paul Jones picked up just one basket and a single free throw.

After their disastrous third period, Acalanes came on strong in the final eight minutes, scoring 18 points after picking up 9-7-5 in the first three periods.

They trailed, 33-21, going in the last session and there just wasn't enough time to make up lost ground.

ALHAMBRA 57

SAN RAMON 52

San Ramon suffered its second straight narrow defeat in Foothill League action, bowing to Alhambra, 57-52.

The Wolves lost their opener, 47-44, to Piedmont. Alhambra evened its league record at 1-1 with the win.

It was San Ramon's fifth loss in a row and sixth in eight games.

Alhambra forward Jim Hammett took individual scoring honors with eight field goals and four free throws for 20 points.

Hammett scored 26 points in the Bulldogs' opening FAL loss to Las Lomas.

Guard Bob Metez paced San Ramon for the second straight game. He had 19 points. Metez picked up nine field goals against the Bulldogs.

He was the only San Ramon player in double figures.

Bob McNamara had seven free throws as he scored 13 points for the Bulldogs. Tom Quantamattoe had 10 points.

Alhambra picked up its margin of victory in the second quarter, outscoring San Ramon, 14-9, then holding on throughout the second half.

The score was 24-18 at the half.

Both teams scored 14 points in the third quarter with San Ramon outpointing the Bulldogs, 20-19, in a wild finale.

MIRAMONTE 41

PLEASANT HILL 31

Miramonte roared to its fifth straight win after three opening losses by breaking a close game wide open with a 17-point fourth quarter.

The Matadors, winner of their only FAL encounter, held an 8-6 lead at the end of the first quarter. They made the slim advantage stand up throughout the next two quarters, leading 20-18 at the half and 24-22 at the end of three quarters.

The Orinda quintet came to life in the final eight minutes, however, outscoring the Rams, 17-9, as they won going away.

Brad Peter and Bruce Nickerson paced the Mats in the scoring department.

Peter had four field goals and four free throws for 12 points while Nickerson had four goals and three charity tosses for 11 points.

Glen Graham paced the Rams with 11 points.

A poor night at the free throwing line hurt the Pleasant Hill cagers most.

They hit on just seven of 17 chances while Miramonte got only 15 free throws, but connected on eight tries.

The Rams were just as cold from the floor, hitting a meager 25 per cent while Miramonte had a 40 per cent average.

The Ski Line . . .

Don't Give Up Skiing, Head for Mt. Shasta

By HEC HANCOCK

What's the word on snow conditions in the High Sierra? To be brutally frank, they leave much to be desired. The current snow drought continues. The worst of it is, there doesn't appear to be any relief forthcoming in the immediate future.

The last storm of any consequence was during the first week of December. For the most part, low temperatures have prevailed during this interval, thus a thin pack of "skiable" snow remains at the higher elevations.

Most resorts describe skiing as "fair," which is another way of saying things just aren't good. But don't knock it, it's all we have and better than nothing.

While the weather this past week has been more conducive to water skiing than that of the snow variety, be of good faith, we'll get snow soon. Just don't hang by your thumbs until it happens.

While skiing throughout most of Northern California consists mostly of rock hopping, there is one location that reports snow in large quantity.

Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl has over six feet of hard pack ready and waiting for the skier.

It takes approximately one hour additional driving to reach Shasta. However, the wide open slopes, with abundant snow make the additional effort well worthwhile.

Just to give you an idea, Shasta had approximately seven feet of snow last June 15. That's MORE than any other area had all year long.

Do yourself a favor, if the snow won't come to you, go where there is snow!

The FWSA Veterans' Giant Slalom Championships will be held at Dodge Ridge this Sunday. A field of approximately 40 competitors is expected to compete in the three classes. Class I includes skiers 32 to 39 years of age; Class II 40-49 years; Class III over 50 years old.

Dr. Peter Picard, the skiing dentist of Walnut Creek is entered in the Class II group. Dr. Picard enjoyed considerable success in this class last year, but can expect stiff competition from Eric Johnson of Berkeley.

Stan Walton, who was on hand to greet the Donner Party, figures to dominate the Class III group.

Don't let the word veteran mislead you into thinking that these are a bunch of old decrepit mossbacks. These guys are still sharp enough to give their younger counterparts a real tussle.

The race course will have some 36 gates, and will be set in Dodge Ridge's new Far East Bowl.

What really hurts, is that I remember skiing with most of these guys when they were anything but "old veterans." I don't know about you, but do you ever get the feeling that your gray hair isn't premature?

Coming up are the Pro Races to be held at Sugar Bowl and Heavenly Valley.

The International Professional Ski Racers will get their season underway with races at Sugar Bowl, January 20-21, followed the next weekend, January 26-28, at Heavenly Valley.

The top skiers in the world, including such names as Christian Pravada, Anderl Molterer and others will be on hand to compete.

Admission to both events will probably be the price of lift ticket. You can't beat that. Watch the greatest, and ski yourself, for the same price.

Approximately 70 students from Stanley School in Lafayette will spend a "learn to ski" weekend at Echo Summit the weekend of January 26. The group, with skiing principal Ed Brown at the helm, will stay at Twin Bridges and ski Echo Summit Ski Area.

As last year, I will have the pleasure of instructing the group. This is a really rewarding experience.

These kids are eager, well co-ordinated, and without fear. The alacrity in which they pick up skiing is both amazing and gratifying.

Usually the little girls catch on quickest, but then I've always been a sucker for the dolls.

The same weekend, the Sitzmark Ski Club of Las Lomas will make their annual pilgrimage to the snow. This year the outing is scheduled for Olympic Village and Squaw Valley.

Remember, be of good faith. Don't be afraid to put in a word for some snow, lots of snow.

Dons Blow Big Lead---Lose to Alhambra, 46-39

Acalanes scored just two baskets in the second half as they blew a 12-point lead to Alhambra, finally losing, 46-39, in Martinez Tuesday afternoon.

It was the second straight FAL defeat for the Dons. Alhambra is now 2-1, having won their last two.

The Dons started off as if they meant business, doubling the Bulldogs' scoring output in the first quarter, 14-7.

It was much the same story in the second period as the Martinez quintet showed it had trouble scoring without their fine forward, Jim Hammett, out of action with the flu.

However, it was a completely different game in the third quarter.

THE DONS watched their once-overwhelming lead dwindle to almost nothing by the end of the period.

The Bulldogs cut the 12-point lead to one point by outscoring the Dons, 16-5 in the period.

The Bulldogs had the momentum now and nothing could stop them.

The Dons couldn't regroup in the fourth period and Alhambra won without looking back, out-pointing Acalanes, 12-4, in the final eight minutes.

Acalanes Coach Bert Barnett tried every combination possible to try and stem the tide, but nothing worked.

GUARD John Paul Jones hit one bucket in the third period and forward Bill Hays hit another in the fourth. That was all the Dons could muster in 16 minutes of basketball.

After outbounding the shorter Alhambra team, 20-8, in the first half, the Dons did a complete turnaround in the second half. The hustling Bulldogs picked off 19 rebounds to eight for Acalanes.

Guard Doug Wolter paced the winners with 16 points, 11 in the second half.

Four of his five second half baskets came in the third period.

Jones topped Acalanes with 20 points. His running mate at guard Doug Sanderson, had 10.

Knights, Clan Are Teams To Catch

Las Lomas Runs Foothill String to 15 Straight

By GEORGE COLBURN
Sports Editor

With the Foothill teams at the quarter pole, Las Lomas and Piedmont appear to be the teams to beat. Both are undefeated, with the Knights on top with three wins. Piedmont had a bye Tuesday as Las Lomas bounced Miramonte from the ranks of the undefeated.

With rookie coach Ed Strelow at the helm, Las Lomas is bidding for its second straight undisputed title. The Knights shared the title in 1959 and 1960.

Last season they won their last 12 league games and now have run the string to 15.

LAS LOMAS takes this evening off while Piedmont clashes with Alhambra.

With Jim Hammett, the Bulldogs' outstanding scorer bedridden with the flu, the Clan will be favored to climb into a first-place tie with the Knights after tonight's action.

An Alhambra loss will mean a 2-2 record for the Martinez team and put them out of the running for the present.

Miramonte, with one loss, is still very much in the title picture, while Acalanes, San Ramon and Del Valle have a lot of catching up to do.

Acalanes, one of the teams picked to make a run for the title along with Las Lomas and Piedmont, have had their troubles.

First, Piedmont smacked them down and then the Hammett-less Bulldogs rolled over them after the Dons had a 12-point halftime lead.

The Dons play at Del Valle tonight and should pick up win No. 1, but they better be careful.

The short, but scrappy all-junior Trojans have given everybody a battle so far this year and they have shown they are capable of holding their own against the best teams.

DEL VALLE has lost three straight FAL contests.

Miramonte hopes to stay in the running tonight by making San Ramon its second victim of the league season.

The Mats had the defending champs, Las Lomas, on the ropes Tuesday, but failed to score a basket in the last period.

The loss ended a five-game winning streak for Herb Graw's boys.

San Ramon, loser of its first two games by a total of nine points, is back at full strength and should not be overlooked by any of its FAL opponents.

A Miramonte loss would put both teams in the also-ran category for the present.

All Foothill teams are off next Tuesday, but get back into action next Friday night with a full slate of games.

MODERN DANCE on the basketball floor is performed by two Del Valle players and a Miramonte opponent in their game last week at Del Valle. All three have the same things in mind—grabbing the elusive basketball. The Del Valle player "setting his sights on the ball" is center Mal Cameron (45). The other two players are unidentified. ## Las Lomas Rally Beats Miramonte

Las Lomas outscored Miramonte 14-2 in the final quarter 13-7, at the end of the first eight minutes.

The Mats cut the margin to four points, 21-17 at the half, then outscored their visitors, 15-10, in the third period as they went out in front for the first time midway through the session.

Mike McQuaid, Eric Unruh, and Bob Williams each had two baskets in the quarter.

Trailing, 32-31, going into the last period, Las Lomas roared back on top, this time to stay, with Gordon Rakow, Bob Nichols and Greg Bertagnoli leading the blitz.

THE MATADORS, winners of five straight games and their only league contest started slowly against Las Lomas, trailing, 13-7, at the end of the first eight minutes.

Nicholas had one and two free throws while Bertagnoli picked up three freethrows.

MIRAMONTE did not score a basket in the final eight minutes.

Nichols topped the scoring lists with 15 points on five field goals and five freethrows. Bertagnoli had 37 for 13 points.

McQuaid paced Miramonte the 13 points, nine via freethrows.

Miramonte scored only three baskets in the first-half, hitting 11 of 16 free throws.

However, Las Lomas kept its lead by connecting on all nine of their chances at the line in the half.

WC Skater Places 3rd in Coast Meet

Barry Munns of Walnut Creek finished third in Novice Men's class of the Pacific Coast Figure Skating Championships last weekend at Great Falls, Montana.

The competition is held to qualify Pacific Coast entries for the U.S. Skating Championships. There were eight teen-age ice skaters from the Walnut Creek Winter Club who were entered in the competition.

The national championships will be held in Boston, February 1-4.

In the Junior Pairs competition, Charlene McLaren of Walnut Creek and Michael Bonnington of Lafayette took a fourth place.

In the same competition, Jan Marchiando and Lyman Stoddard III of Walnut Creek placed fifth.

Christine Simon of Walnut Creek and Elwyn Kelsey of Concord placed ninth, also in the junior pairs.

Munns and his sister, Beverly, took an eighth in the Bronze Dance competition.

The skaters were accompanied to Great Falls by their parents and their coach, Mrs. Hope Cuny of Lafayette.

Amateur figure skaters from Alaska to Arizona and all the Western States participated in the competition.

2 Teams Romp to Big Wins in 1st Danville Clashes

Carter Glass, Diamond Building Materials and Aerojet opened the Danville Basketball League with wins last week in games at San Ramon High School.

Next week, Carter meets the Shoe Stable on Tuesday; Danville Cement faces Vern S. Ryan on Wednesday and Diamond Building Materials takes on Martinez on Thursday.

All games start at 7:30 p.m.

Last week, Aerojet swamped Vern S. Ryan, 76-29, to inaugurate the new season; Carter Glass romped past Martinez, 83-44, and Diamond Building Materials outlasted Danville Cement, 62-54.

Shoe Stable had a bye. AEROJET'S mainstays of past years, Bill Lloyd, Herb Kiger, Bill Way and Gary Howard, were reinforced by the addition of two new ballplayers—Doug Crippen and Bob LaPoint—both of whom scored 12 points apiece in their initial appearance.

Both teams were cold at the outset with neither able to score until Way muscled one in. Aerojet then took off and were never headed thereafter.

Lloyd was the big gun for the winners, scoring 29 points while playing little more than half the game.

Twenty-four of the points came via 12 field goals.

Eric Kellner was high for the losers with 19 points on seven field goals and five free throws.

The Ryan aggregation had a plausible excuse for their loss in that this was the first game they had ever played together.

AS IF Bobby Dold, former St. Mary's star, wasn't enough, Carter Glass added another high-scoring player in the person of Joe Berry, who looked good leading the team with 26 points.

Dold scored 24 points. Will Strong, always in the high-scoring bracket, came through with 16 markers.

Hay and Bert Barnett were the shining lights for the losers with 20 and 17, respectively.

B. Barnett is the Acalanes High School basketball coach. H. Barnett coaches at Fairview in Lafayette.

Roger Plier and John Longaker paced Diamond Building Materials to victory over Danville Cement. Plier had 17 points while Longaker contributed 15 more.

Alhambra Tops 'B' Standings With 2-0 Mark

The Foothill Athletic League B basketball teams opened its schedule last week, along with the varsity squads.

At the conclusion of the first week's action, Alhambra stood at the top of the standings with a 2-0 record, defeating Las Lomas and San Ramon.

Acalanes and Miramonte both won in their only games.

Del Valle split its two league battles, while Las Lomas lost both its encounters.

The Del Valle Bs were defeated last Tuesday by Miramonte, 32-22.

A BALANCED Matador attack led by Max Milton with 8 points, Jeff Anderson with 8 points and Steve Cummings with 7, proved too much for the Trojans.

Vic Deccio scored 8 points to lead the Del Valle scoring.

Del Valle came back with a 28-24 win over Las Lomas Friday night.

Las Lomas led through three quarters of play, but was held to a slim three points in the final period. The Trojans scored their most points in that period, with 9.

Bruce Black led Del Valle scoring with 11 points, followed by Vic Shellenberg with 9. Del Valle has won three and lost two this season.

Las Lomas high-point man was Rich Bovo with 9 points.

Last Tuesday, Las Lomas suffered a heartbreaking defeat, 50-48, at the hand of Alhambra. Steve Miles scored a terrific 22 points to lead the Knights. Alhambra had led at halftime, 20-19.

The Las Lomas season record is two wins and three defeats. MIRAMONTE concluded its activity last week against the Pleasant Hill junior varsity. Pleasant Hill won, 36-29.

Pete Boyle led the Mats with 10 points. Pete Hall totaled 14 points and Mark Perrin 12 in leading the Rams to victory.

Miramonte's season record is one win and two losses.

Acalanes won its first game of the season against Piedmont. The score was 37-21. Jim Madek was high scorer with 16 points. Phil Gilmore, a freshman on the squad, did a fine job of rebounding and scored 6 points.

Frosh Teams Open Season---Dons, SR Win

Acalanes and Las Lomas frosh teams began the 1962 Foothill season last Friday with victories over Piedmont and Del Valle respectively.

Acalanes devastated Piedmont, 37-22, as Don Rickman and Lee Newell scored six points each.

Las Lomas dumped Del Valle, 29-23. Rich Hurley led the Knights with 17 points. Steve Sleeper led the Trojans with six.

San Ramon was defeated by Alhambra, 35-26. Steve Cryer and Jay Peays had seven points each for the Wolves. Denny Doud had six in the losing effort.

Brigadoon Coming

"Brigadoon," the gay Scotch musical by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe, will be the opening production of the Diablo Light Opera Company's third season in Contra Costa County. It will be presented at the Las Lomas High School auditorium, Walnut Creek at 8 p.m. January 27, February 2, 3 and 10.

Tickets are available from any member of the company or at the Seven Arts Book Store at 1378 Main Street, Walnut Creek. They are $1.75 for adults, $1 for students.

"BRIGADOON" is set in a quaint village in the Scotch Highlands which is said only to appear once every hundred years. Two American travelers, Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas, played in this production by Dr. Vincent Wood and Clifford Egan, stumble upon the village of Brigadoon while they are hiking in the Highlands. Tommy meets and falls in love with a village lass played by Beverly McKeown, and so the story begins.

The musical is highlighted by several sparkling dance sequences ably directed by the choreographer, Rhoda Klitsner. The leading dancers are Jean, played by Betty Moran, and Harry Beaton who dances the sword dance, played by Walt Delinger.

MRS. KLITSNER dances the part of Maggie Anderson. Other dancers in the show are Cheryl Christianson, Terri Pemberton, Charlotte Chase, Donna McDaniels, Millie Hoelscher and John Allen.

Comedy relief is provided by Gail Wood in the part of Meg Brockie who spends her time in search of a husband.

Other leading parts are taken by Lynn Henderson and Ron Colvin of Walnut Creek, Fred Gandel of Lafayette, Jim Sanderson and Walt Davis of Livermore. Dr. Donald Poulton of Oakland, Bill Meglitz of Concord and Donald Moss of Martinez.

The costumes for this production have been designed and are being made by Harriet Daneiko, also a member of the cast. Each clan will be dressed in its own bright wool kilt.

The Diablo Light Opera Company has 40 voices, eight dancers, and an orchestra of 25 pieces.

Drama School Has New Courses for Youngsters

The Dramateurs' School of Drama, which holds classes in acting technique for young people every Saturday at Lafayette's Town Hall, is adding three new courses in play production for teen-agers and adults, it was announced this week.

The winter session is just beginning and there is still time to register for any one or all of the classes, according to the school's director, Mrs. Patricia Winkworth. The school operates in 10-week sessions throughout the school year, offering classes in drama for youngsters aged seven through 17. Ages seven through nine meet from 10 to 11 a.m.; 10 through 12 from 11 to 12 noon; 13 through 17 from 12:30 to 2 p.m.

The new classes in play production are open to those aged 15 and up, and include set design and construction at 11:30 Saturday mornings—instructor, Ed Youngs, who has been the chief set designer for the Dramateurs for the past three years; make-up at 2 p.m. will be taught by Mrs. Morna Phillips, chairman of the Dramateurs' make-up committee, and Mrs. Winkworth; sound and lights at 3 p.m. will be conducted by John Read, who built and installed the extensive sound and light system used for Dramateur productions.

All of the classes are available at a nominal fee, with special rates for teen-agers who are also enrolled in the acting technique classes. Students in the set design and construction class and the sound and lights class will use Tennessee Williams' play, "Summer and Smoke" (which is tentatively scheduled for production by the Dramateurs in April) as a workshop. They will work out designs and a complete model for the set, built a life-size papier-mache statue and work out a sound effects plan and lighting plot. The make-up course will teach all phases of theatrical make-up including basic, character, hair and beards.

Anyone interested in entering either the drama or play production classes may contact Mrs. Winkworth at CL 4-5517 or come to the Town Hall, Moraga and School streets, Lafayette, Saturday to enroll.

"We are happy that each year more calendars are sold which helps us keep abreast with the constant increase in applications for camps, which we continue to expand and improve," states Mrs. William E. Marshall.

A few calendars are still available which may be obtained directly from Girl Scout Headquarters at 3570 Terrace Way, Lafayette.

Producing fine merchandise requires the liberal use of fine materials and skilled labor. Because CM builds only merchandise of the finest quality, CM material and labor costs are higher than competition. However, in non-essential costs that contribute nothing to the value of the merchandise but much to its cost, CM has by far the lowest costs in the industry. By reducing to a minimum national advertising, trade paper advertising, multi-stage distribution, excessive occupancy cost, excessive executive cost, and generally high burden costs, CM is able to use finer materials and skilled labor most liberally to build the finest quality, the most beautiful merchandise that the industry affords at costs far below competition.

'Can Do' Gal Heads Cancer Drive

A Moraga matron whose list of civic services proves the adage "the more you do, the more you can do" has been selected as county-wide residential chairman for the 1962 fund drive to be conducted in April by the Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society. She is Mrs. Harold C. Bates, a sturdy third-generation Californian, who lives with her husband and two children at 7 Thune Avenue.

MRS. BATES said she hopes to reach each of Contra Costa's approximately 125,000 homes during April, leaving live-saving cancer education information and gathering funds to push control of this feared disease. She is making plans for county-wide coverage and that a local residential chairman for each community will be appointed. Busy Mrs. Bates has lived in Contra Costa County since 1947 and has performed distinguished community services for many years. Last year she was cancer campaign chairman for home town, Moraga, but her interest in the society's work dates from former years when she served as campaign director for Alameda County for three years. SHE IS currently president of the John Muir Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, which includes all 12 of the guilds working to establish the new hospital to serve central Contra Costa. Mrs. Bates also is now treasurer of St. Giles Episcopal Church in Moraga. She is a member of the county and state Republican central committees after serving as assistant secretary of the state central committee during 1958-1960.

She is now membership chairman of Camino Pablo School Parents' Club and is trip chairman of Girl Scouts, Troop 34. She is a member of the women's board of the Valley Art Center. She is a reserve member of the Swallows Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. She was first vice president of Mt. Diablo Council of PTA, in charge of child welfare, and for this work was awarded an honorary life membership. MRS. BATES served two terms as state treasurer of the Young Republicans and was charter president of the Diablo Valley Republican Assembly. In 1958, she was one of 33 women chosen from throughout the nation by the Republican National Committee as a delegate to a Washington, D. C. conference. She also served as county chairman for the Nixon-Lodge 1960 campaign. Her children are already showing signs of their mother's talent for leadership. Son John, 13, an eighth grade student at Camino Pablo School, is patrol leader for his Scout Troop 212, a 4-H Club member and a carrier for the Oakland Tribune.

DAUGHTER Laurie, 11, a fifth grader at the same school, is active in 4-H Club work and in Girl Scout Troop 34. "Some one asked me the other day why I do what I do," Mrs. Bates commented. "I had to answer as I honestly feel, and that is that God gave each one of us something to contribute. Some of us are creative artists, some of us are outstanding housewives; but my gift seems to be organization."

"I feel I must use my abilities for the betterment of the community, and that is why I am happy to accept the challenge of this vital work for the American Cancer Society." She said that volunteers desiring to work with her should call the society.

Miramonte Mirror

Dances, Victories, Dates
Keep the Calendar Gay!

By ANN AND KITTY MIKA

The Mat cagers crushed the Pleasant Hill team Friday night with a score of 41 to 31. The teams seemed to be evenly matched until the fourth quarter when the Mats, especially Mike McQuaid, let them know what for. Bruce Nickerson and Brad Peters were other outstanding players that game.

An after-game dance sponsored by the Parents Club brought a great crowd of Miramonteans into the cafeteria for dancing and refreshments. Among those enjoying themselves were Kathy Adams and Doug Dermitt, Bill Souza and Marilyn Smith, John Lackey and Karen Stafford, Paul McChesney and Sue Hancock, Kit Kersch and Candy Kolhauss, Karen Nattress and Steve Brush, Linda Hatchkiss and Denny Lucas.

Tuesday's victory over Del Valle also showed the ability and spirit of the Matador team.

Keith St. Clair hosted friends and their dates at a party Saturday night. Some of those attending were Bill Schwarck, Shari Sage, Skip Spaich and Janice Hempstead, Ron Jouthas and Marc Jacobs, Roger McCosker and Cheri Romer, Steve Beckett and Chess MacIntyre, John MacIntyre and Sue Starkman, Roger Howard and Linda Van Sickle, Greg Peterson and Pat Canfield, John Reilly and Pam Pearson, Doug Rasmussen and Pat Campbell, and Keith with Candy Hackler.

Sue Nicolaysen held a small dinner party Saturday night for Pat Finn, Estelle Cataline, a girl from Holy Names and their dates from St. Mary's. It turned out that the boys did most of the work . . . cooking vegetables and charcoal-broiling steaks. After dinner the couples enjoyed the evening talking and dancing.

Ron Villata had an open-house Saturday night at his home. Some of those who made the scene were Joe Cayting, Sam de Franco, Bonnie Kent, Karen Voll, Lori Chapple, Sue Hancock, Dick Hanlin, Iris Scott, Randy Corsi and Darrel Courtwright with their dates.

Jay Grilli has been spending the past week at Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek because of a motorcycle accident. He's recovering quickly and should be home in a few days. It's a miracle that he's doing as well as he is considering the fact that the first three days he was in the hospital approximately 60 people either visited, called, or sent cards, gifts and flowers.

Get ready to twist, twirl, and wait at the "Offbeat." Grubby cut-offs and sweatshirts are the proper attire for this atmospheric Ailanthus dance to be held January 20 in Montclair. Attendance is limited so buy your tickets soon from any Ailanthus member.

Crusade's Murdock Moves to Bay Area Organization Vice President

Dana Murdock, president of the five-county United Contra Costa United Fund Bay Area Crusade during 1962, during the 1961 drive, was picked Murdock's new assignment this week to serve as vice-president of the organization's seventh annual meeting at San Francisco's Sheraton Palace Hotel, yesterday.

Contra Costa campaign chairman Gerald Stanley indicated that his volunteers will net a final $255,000 for the county-wide drive, about nine per cent short of the $280,162 goal for the year.

FOUR COUNTY residents will serve on the crusade's executive committee during 1962, and 15 others will fill vacancies on the board of governors for either one or three-year terms.

Treasurer of the crusade for the second year is long-time volunteer leader and Lafayette business consultant Robert Kahn.

Active for the most part in the Alameda County United Fund since 1954, Kahn has held a number of "key" leadership posts in that organization, more recently as a vice-president of the board and member of its executive committee.

Named to the crusade's executive committee were PG&E executive Henley V. Worthington, 411 La Vista Road, Walnut Creek, and Contra Costa College Superintendent Drummond J. McCunn of 3293 Withers Avenue, Lafayette.

BOTH MEN are long-time leaders of the Contra Costa United Fund.

McCunn served as 1960 campaign chairman and Worthington as president in 1960.

Elected for three-year terms to the crusade's board of governors were insurance executive Duncan Knudsen of Lafayette, past president of the county United Fund (1956-57); Bank of America vice-president Edwin N. Boyce of Orinda who served last year as campaign chairman in the Richmond area.

DuPont Company executive Kenneth Grogan of Walnut Creek, member of the county United Fund executive committee and board; Mrs. Bruce Howard of Orinda, current member of the county organization's budget and admissions committee, and Lafayette realtor Jack Pedder who has served on the five-county crusade's board of governors since 1957.

Deputy Young Reports

The County Sheriff's Department has a new deputy named Douglas Donald Young, age 25, and predictions are he will make the grade.

As he was accepted into the department, Douglas got a firm handshake from his dad, Sheriff Walt Young.

The younger Young passed civil service examinations and will be assigned to fill a vacancy in the Detention Division of the Main Jail.

The new deputy is a graduate of El Cerrito High and has been a member of the El Cerrito Police Reserves for three years.

'Tops Club' Officers Are Installed

Other officers include: Mrs. R. B. Mott of Walnut Creek, vice president, and Mrs. Lurajean Hayercraft of Walnut Creek, secretary.

New members are welcome, said Mrs. Reynolds. The local group organized last October, before which the members were associated with a Concord group.

Our Grads Doing Well at 'Cal'

Better than average to superior grades are being earned by Acalanes Union High School District graduates attending various branches of the University of California, according to a recent study by the state university.

The report resulted in a special award of merit for the collective scholastic performance of students of Miramonte High. The award is designed to recognize students from high schools having graduates at "Cal" for less than three years.

Similar reports for successful graduates of the district have been made for the past three years. An additional 28 per cent of the graduating classes in that same three-year period have been accepted in four-year universities and colleges.
